

position by hard and faithful work.

Judge Mann on Great Victory. Former Governor Mann, who first called to the attention of the bankers of Richmond the possibility of securing a regional reserve bank for this city—a movement which had its inception even before the currency bill had finally passed—was the first speaker. He congratulated the city and the State and the Fifth District on the results that had been achieved by the organization committee in Washington.

"Berry's for Clothes"

Established 1879

Spring styles are now settled and the accepted models are here.

Soft Hats, creased, telescoped and flattened, ruffled edges with wide silk bands, $2 to $6.

Light weight Derbies, in various shapes—the prevailing styles of New York and London.

Caps—the noisy ones, $1 to $3.

Spring Balmacon and English Sport Coats for men and women.

Things lie enough for the young folk of this Great Regional Bank City!

Come in to-day.

MAYOR ON BANK

BY GEORGE AINSLIE, Mayor of Richmond.

The selection of Richmond as one of the twelve Federal reserve bank cities was the result of a co-operative effort on the part of her people. It was a triumph in her history. They rallied to her support the tremendous influence of the people of those States composing her natural territory, who instantly recognized the merits of her claim and labored unceasingly in her behalf. The spokesmen before the committee presented her case so cogently and unanswerably that the judges could not resist their appeal.

It was a great and magnificent victory, and the hearty thanks and congratulations of the entire community are due to those who won it.

After the drudgery of a solid year of tariff and currency and Panama talks, and all the dreams of unfulfilled future legislation, it is a pleasure to associate with you in an undertaking in which there has been no jealousy, and nothing but good will and satisfaction and hope.

Strong Voice From Carolina. Colonel J. F. Bruton, of Wilson, N. C., who spoke strongly for Richmond before the organization committee in Washington, turned the laugh on Mr. Seay by relating an imaginary conversation between Secretary McAdoo and Secretary Houston over the reasons why Mr. Seay had omitted Wilson from the map of this section. In conclusion, he said:

"The great tribune of the people has spoken in the enactment of this law, which says that the average man may have a chance, and that those who are as large as their feet in their trousers must get back."

George A. Holderness, president of the Richmond Chamber of Commerce, said that the contact had not been voted by the committee, but by thousands. There had been no vote, but there had been many who volunteered for the cause, and their places for what must be done. With their places for what must be done. With their places for what must be done. With their places for what must be done.

George A. Holderness, president of the Richmond Chamber of Commerce, said that the contact had not been voted by the committee, but by thousands. There had been no vote, but there had been many who volunteered for the cause, and their places for what must be done. With their places for what must be done. With their places for what must be done.

George A. Holderness, president of the Richmond Chamber of Commerce, said that the contact had not been voted by the committee, but by thousands. There had been no vote, but there had been many who volunteered for the cause, and their places for what must be done. With their places for what must be done. With their places for what must be done.

George A. Holderness, president of the Richmond Chamber of Commerce, said that the contact had not been voted by the committee, but by thousands. There had been no vote, but there had been many who volunteered for the cause, and their places for what must be done. With their places for what must be done. With their places for what must be done.

George A. Holderness, president of the Richmond Chamber of Commerce, said that the contact had not been voted by the committee, but by thousands. There had been no vote, but there had been many who volunteered for the cause, and their places for what must be done. With their places for what must be done. With their places for what must be done.

George A. Holderness, president of the Richmond Chamber of Commerce, said that the contact had not been voted by the committee, but by thousands. There had been no vote, but there had been many who volunteered for the cause, and their places for what must be done. With their places for what must be done. With their places for what must be done.

George A. Holderness, president of the Richmond Chamber of Commerce, said that the contact had not been voted by the committee, but by thousands. There had been no vote, but there had been many who volunteered for the cause, and their places for what must be done. With their places for what must be done. With their places for what must be done.

George A. Holderness, president of the Richmond Chamber of Commerce, said that the contact had not been voted by the committee, but by thousands. There had been no vote, but there had been many who volunteered for the cause, and their places for what must be done. With their places for what must be done. With their places for what must be done.

George A. Holderness, president of the Richmond Chamber of Commerce, said that the contact had not been voted by the committee, but by thousands. There had been no vote, but there had been many who volunteered for the cause, and their places for what must be done. With their places for what must be done. With their places for what must be done.

George A. Holderness, president of the Richmond Chamber of Commerce, said that the contact had not been voted by the committee, but by thousands. There had been no vote, but there had been many who volunteered for the cause, and their places for what must be done. With their places for what must be done. With their places for what must be done.

George A. Holderness, president of the Richmond Chamber of Commerce, said that the contact had not been voted by the committee, but by thousands. There had been no vote, but there had been many who volunteered for the cause, and their places for what must be done. With their places for what must be done. With their places for what must be done.

George A. Holderness, president of the Richmond Chamber of Commerce, said that the contact had not been voted by the committee, but by thousands. There had been no vote, but there had been many who volunteered for the cause, and their places for what must be done. With their places for what must be done. With their places for what must be done.

George A. Holderness, president of the Richmond Chamber of Commerce, said that the contact had not been voted by the committee, but by thousands. There had been no vote, but there had been many who volunteered for the cause, and their places for what must be done. With their places for what must be done. With their places for what must be done.

George A. Holderness, president of the Richmond Chamber of Commerce, said that the contact had not been voted by the committee, but by thousands. There had been no vote, but there had been many who volunteered for the cause, and their places for what must be done. With their places for what must be done. With their places for what must be done.

The North Carolina Bankers' Association, said that the spirit behind the bill was the finest he had ever seen. Such a spirit, if unified, would make the fifth district the most progressive and prosperous section of the nation, he predicted.

John Kerr Branch, chairman of the general committee, said that the bill was the finest he had ever seen. Such a spirit, if unified, would make the fifth district the most progressive and prosperous section of the nation, he predicted.

Just Started to Fight. "We have only just started to fight," said Mr. Branch. "It is a war that speaks freedom for all of us. We have only started to fight. We want to carry on the struggle until we have secured the right to have a regional bank for this city. We have had no success in getting a regional bank for this city. We have had no success in getting a regional bank for this city. We have had no success in getting a regional bank for this city."

The same spirit that has been mentioned in the paper by President Reed, of the Chamber of Commerce, and in the paper by President Branch, of the Chamber of Commerce, is the spirit that has been mentioned in the paper by President Reed, of the Chamber of Commerce, and in the paper by President Branch, of the Chamber of Commerce.

Spring Balmacon and English Sport Coats for men and women.

Things lie enough for the young folk of this Great Regional Bank City!

Come in to-day.

George A. Holderness, president of the Richmond Chamber of Commerce, said that the contact had not been voted by the committee, but by thousands. There had been no vote, but there had been many who volunteered for the cause, and their places for what must be done. With their places for what must be done. With their places for what must be done.

George A. Holderness, president of the Richmond Chamber of Commerce, said that the contact had not been voted by the committee, but by thousands. There had been no vote, but there had been many who volunteered for the cause, and their places for what must be done. With their places for what must be done. With their places for what must be done.

George A. Holderness, president of the Richmond Chamber of Commerce, said that the contact had not been voted by the committee, but by thousands. There had been no vote, but there had been many who volunteered for the cause, and their places for what must be done. With their places for what must be done. With their places for what must be done.

George A. Holderness, president of the Richmond Chamber of Commerce, said that the contact had not been voted by the committee, but by thousands. There had been no vote, but there had been many who volunteered for the cause, and their places for what must be done. With their places for what must be done. With their places for what must be done.

George A. Holderness, president of the Richmond Chamber of Commerce, said that the contact had not been voted by the committee, but by thousands. There had been no vote, but there had been many who volunteered for the cause, and their places for what must be done. With their places for what must be done. With their places for what must be done.

George A. Holderness, president of the Richmond Chamber of Commerce, said that the contact had not been voted by the committee, but by thousands. There had been no vote, but there had been many who volunteered for the cause, and their places for what must be done. With their places for what must be done. With their places for what must be done.

George A. Holderness, president of the Richmond Chamber of Commerce, said that the contact had not been voted by the committee, but by thousands. There had been no vote, but there had been many who volunteered for the cause, and their places for what must be done. With their places for what must be done. With their places for what must be done.

George A. Holderness, president of the Richmond Chamber of Commerce, said that the contact had not been voted by the committee, but by thousands. There had been no vote, but there had been many who volunteered for the cause, and their places for what must be done. With their places for what must be done. With their places for what must be done.

George A. Holderness, president of the Richmond Chamber of Commerce, said that the contact had not been voted by the committee, but by thousands. There had been no vote, but there had been many who volunteered for the cause, and their places for what must be done. With their places for what must be done. With their places for what must be done.

George A. Holderness, president of the Richmond Chamber of Commerce, said that the contact had not been voted by the committee, but by thousands. There had been no vote, but there had been many who volunteered for the cause, and their places for what must be done. With their places for what must be done. With their places for what must be done.

George A. Holderness, president of the Richmond Chamber of Commerce, said that the contact had not been voted by the committee, but by thousands. There had been no vote, but there had been many who volunteered for the cause, and their places for what must be done. With their places for what must be done. With their places for what must be done.

George A. Holderness, president of the Richmond Chamber of Commerce, said that the contact had not been voted by the committee, but by thousands. There had been no vote, but there had been many who volunteered for the cause, and their places for what must be done. With their places for what must be done. With their places for what must be done.

George A. Holderness, president of the Richmond Chamber of Commerce, said that the contact had not been voted by the committee, but by thousands. There had been no vote, but there had been many who volunteered for the cause, and their places for what must be done. With their places for what must be done. With their places for what must be done.

George A. Holderness, president of the Richmond Chamber of Commerce, said that the contact had not been voted by the committee, but by thousands. There had been no vote, but there had been many who volunteered for the cause, and their places for what must be done. With their places for what must be done. With their places for what must be done.

George A. Holderness, president of the Richmond Chamber of Commerce, said that the contact had not been voted by the committee, but by thousands. There had been no vote, but there had been many who volunteered for the cause, and their places for what must be done. With their places for what must be done. With their places for what must be done.

George A. Holderness, president of the Richmond Chamber of Commerce, said that the contact had not been voted by the committee, but by thousands. There had been no vote, but there had been many who volunteered for the cause, and their places for what must be done. With their places for what must be done. With their places for what must be done.

George A. Holderness, president of the Richmond Chamber of Commerce, said that the contact had not been voted by the committee, but by thousands. There had been no vote, but there had been many who volunteered for the cause, and their places for what must be done. With their places for what must be done. With their places for what must be done.

George A. Holderness, president of the Richmond Chamber of Commerce, said that the contact had not been voted by the committee, but by thousands. There had been no vote, but there had been many who volunteered for the cause, and their places for what must be done. With their places for what must be done. With their places for what must be done.

George A. Holderness, president of the Richmond Chamber of Commerce, said that the contact had not been voted by the committee, but by thousands. There had been no vote, but there had been many who volunteered for the cause, and their places for what must be done. With their places for what must be done. With their places for what must be done.

George A. Holderness, president of the Richmond Chamber of Commerce, said that the contact had not been voted by the committee, but by thousands. There had been no vote, but there had been many who volunteered for the cause, and their places for what must be done. With their places for what must be done. With their places for what must be done.

George A. Holderness, president of the Richmond Chamber of Commerce, said that the contact had not been voted by the committee, but by thousands. There had been no vote, but there had been many who volunteered for the cause, and their places for what must be done. With their places for what must be done. With their places for what must be done.

Most Popular School Teacher THE TIMES-DISPATCH VOTING COUPON. A $500.00 Piano-Player will be given by The Times-Dispatch to the most popular school teacher in the city of Richmond. I hereby cast ONE vote for Name School Address. Mail all coupons to POPULARITY MANAGER, Room 436, The Times-Dispatch. This Coupon Not Good After April 9. Contest Ends April 30, 1914.

Vote to Date in Contest for Most Popular School Teacher

Table with columns: NAME, SCHOOL, No. Votes. Includes Miss Mabel Dobbins (Ruffner (Central) 27,150), Mr. William G. Jones (Madison 20,204), Mr. W. C. Locker (John Marshall Night School 21,800), Miss Rachel Lyon (Bathbridge 5,511), Mr. W. H. Cooke (Randolph 2,003), Miss M. E. Craig (Jefferson 1,820), Mr. G. A. Riddick (William Fox 1,073), Mr. A. B. Conner (McGuire 1,055), Miss Emily Valentine (Chimborazo 1,278).

We have temporarily discontinued the names of teachers who have not 1,000 votes to their credit. As soon as 1,000 or more votes are registered these names will be published.

T. Norman, W. A. Clarke, Jr., H. C. Boshen. Manufacturers' Exhibit—Frank L. Brown, Horace F. Smith, E. T. Harrison. Rotary Club—J. G. Corley, S. S. Rosendorf, M. B. Florshelm. Advertisers Club—G. Edmund Mastie, E. L. Layfield, J. T. Palamary. Business Men's Association—D. L. Teney, A. M. Pettigrew, A. L. Adamson. Travelers Protective Association—George W. Rogers, H. L. Harwood, William Jenkins, Jr. United Commercial Travelers' Association—C. C. Hitt, T. S. Clibbons, G. L. Reed. Newspaper—J. T. W. Curtis, J. S. Bryan, C. B. Cooke, S. E. Woodin. Singing—Walter C. Mercer. Bands—Joseph C. Kessnick.

Funeral at Huntsville

Late Representative Richardson, of Alabama, Buried at Old House. Huntsville, Ala., April 3.—The funeral of the late William Richardson, Representative in Congress from the Eighth Alabama district, was held here today at the Episcopal Church, Rev. Cary Gamble officiating. At the conclusion of the brief service many folded the body to Maple Hill Cemetery, where it was interred.

Lumber Companies Merge

Consolidation of Three Georgia Concerns is Announced. Savannah, Ga., April 3.—Announcement of the consolidation of lumber companies in Georgia, with a total capital amounting to $2,000,000, was made here tonight. The consolidation is being effected by the Georgia Lumber Company, the latter company already is chartered under New York state laws, and application for a charter in Georgia has been made at Springfield. Companies included in the merger are the East Georgia Sawmill Company, the South Georgia Lumber Company and the Georgia-Carolina Lumber Company.

Deal Not Completed

Baltimore, April 3.—Officials of the Pullman Co. here today said that the purchase of the New Haven Railroad by the Merchants and Miners' Transportation Company had not been completed. The deal had not been completed in behalf of a Baltimore syndicate.

Speakers Agree Upon Principles, but There Are Variations as to Applications.

Philosophy of the Monroe Doctrine is just as alive now as it ever was, and President Monroe's declaration is not an "obsolescent" one, according to a statement made at the annual meeting of the American Association of Political and Social Science, which is considering international relations and obligations of the United States. The speaker was Rear Admiral Coby M. Chester, who is a member of the American Association of Political and Social Science.

Only One "Bromo Quinine"

Take the genuine. Look for the name on the wrapper. Only One "Bromo Quinine" is the name on the wrapper. Only One "Bromo Quinine" is the name on the wrapper. Only One "Bromo Quinine" is the name on the wrapper.

Pay for Silk Get Silk

All is not silk that's "silky" —but there's pure thread silk in "Notaseme." Looks well and stays so. For men and women. All leading dealers. NOTASEME FOR HOSIERY.

Big Celebration When Bank Opens

Conference on Monday to Plan Great Popular Demonstration. The Civic Co-Operative Organization, a body composed of representatives from each of the commercial and civic bodies of Richmond, has called a meeting at the Chamber of Commerce hall for Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock to plan for a city-wide celebration over the regional bank victory. The money may be raised for the day of the formal opening of the Richmond Federal reserve bank, and it is suggested that there be a great civic parade with a special demonstration in honor of the committee which has worked so successfully and untriflingly for Richmond.

Last Day of Persian Rug Exhibit

We urge every Richmond woman to take advantage of this last opportunity to see the exquisite collection of Oriental Art which has so charmed every connoisseur who has viewed these Treasures of the East. We are giving this special invitation to-day. Sydner & Hundley.

RICHMOND CHOSEN OVER RIVALS BY UNANIMOUS VOTE

(Continued From First Page.) To launch the system as soon as possible. In the opinion of officials here, the transfer of money from member banks, in payment of their subscriptions to reserve banks, will be accomplished without disturbance to business and without any curtailment of credit or retrenchment in loans or discount. The law gives nearly a year to the banks for the payment of one-half of their total subscriptions, and it was believed that this time would prove sufficient.

Bankers Are Gratiified

Norfolk, Va., April 3.—Among bankers of Norfolk and Portsmouth gratification was expressed to-day over the designation of Richmond as one of the twelve Federal reserve banks to be established by the Federal government under the new currency law. Telegrams were received to-day from some of the Richmond bankers, asking the local financiers to come to Richmond and join them in celebrating the victory, to which the bankers of Norfolk and Portsmouth contributed materially by unanimously honoring Richmond in its contest.

Mann Traced for Director

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Bluefield, W. Va., April 3.—A move made by the Federal Reserve Board to name Edwin Mann, president of the First National Bank, and interested in a high position in the banks, made a director of the reserve bank to be located at Richmond.

REPORT OF WILLA SHOWS COMPLETE ROUT OF FEDERALS

(Continued From First Page.) Washington on the proposed propaganda were sent to-night. "The fall of Terreon puts the dollar mark on Villa and Monclova," said J. S. Curtis, of El Paso, Texas, who is considered the most expert authority in Mexican Constitutionalism in the United States.

"TALBOT HOUSE" DESTROYED

Famous Old Cottage Built by James R. Keene Is Prey to Flames. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Bristol, Va., April 3.—Samuel Bachman, a prominent citizen of East Tennessee, died suddenly of heart failure at the home of his son, Edward Williams, at Wallace, Va., to-day aged sixty-seven years. His wife died several weeks ago. Several grown children survive.

Shifting of Cargo Keeps Crippled Vessel From Going Down

Newport News, Va., April 3.—How a strange turn of fortune saved the American steamer Robert M. Thompson from disaster of the Virginia Capes early yesterday when she was struck in a fog by the American schooner Augusta W. Snow, was related here today by Captain Caviler, of the Thompson. The schooner was crumpled, and she quickly became waterlogged. She was towed into port here late last night by a navy tug, the Thompson arriving at the same time under her own steam.

Shoener Badly Crippled

Norfolk, Va., April 3.—The schooner Augusta W. Snow, was towed into Hampton Roads today by the tug Robert M. Thompson in a badly crippled condition. The crew of the Snow came in after the tug.

Deaths

DAVIS.—Died, April 3, 1914, at 10:20 A. M., at her parents' home, 121 Main Street, FANNY PAGE DAVIS, widow, and beloved daughter of J. Pryor and Fanny Meredith Davis, in her sixteenth year. Funeral from St. James Episcopal Church, at 2:30 o'clock, and interment in Hollywood.

COMOLI.—Died, Friday, 2:45 P. M., at her residence, 2567 East Clay Street, MRS. SOPHIE COMOLI, and beloved wife of the late Fred Comoli. Funeral notice later.

CROWELL.—Died, April 2, 1914, at 9:45 P. M., MRS. L. A. CROWELL, in the sixty-fourth year of her age. Funeral to-day at 3 P. M. from the residence of T. N. Durvin, 2916 Fairmount Avenue, interment in Oakwood. Friends invited to attend.

HOLZGRIFF.—Died, suddenly, April 3, at 1 P. M., HENRY HOLZGRIFF, of 2261 Grove Avenue. Funeral notice later.

Obituary

Edward Blankenship. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Frontsville, Va., April 3.—Mr. Ed. Blankenship, a well-known citizen of Lancaster County, died yesterday at his home of pneumonia. He is survived by several sisters and numbers of other relatives in Lancaster and Northumberland Counties.

Mrs. I. S. Lewis. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Lawrenceville, Va., April 3.—Mrs. I. S. Lewis, aged seventy-nine years, died recently at the home of her daughter, Mrs. R. L. Epperson, near Lawrenceville. She is survived by one brother, Joseph Peebles, of Brunswick; two sons—W. H. Lewis, of Hampton, and J. H. Lewis, of Brunswick; and two daughters—Mrs. Lucy, of Dolphin, and Mrs. R. L. Epperson.

J. Merrill Blanchard. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Williamsburg, Va., April 3.—Mr. J. Merrill Blanchard, former William and Mary coach, died in the home of his mother-in-law, Mrs. Missouri Timberlake, here yesterday. Mr. and Mrs. Blanchard arrived in Williamsburg a week ago from their home in Baltimore, and although Mr. Blanchard's health was bad, his death came as a great shock to his family. He is survived by his widow, who was born in Virginia Timberlake, of this city. They were married less than two years ago. The funeral will take place on Saturday from Britton Park Church, at 10 o'clock, and will be held at 11 o'clock. Interment will be in Cedar Grove Cemetery. Following will be the pallbearers: Active—H. G. Parker, Thad Hall, Dr. C. H. Williams.

FOLKS say you can't buy fren-ship. Shucks, a feller kin buy a pipe an' he kin buy a dog—an' I reckon they're about the best fren's any man ever had.

Advertisement for a pipe and dog, featuring a drawing of a man and a dog. Text: "FOLKS say you can't buy fren-ship. Shucks, a feller kin buy a pipe an' he kin buy a dog—an' I reckon they're about the best fren's any man ever had." Includes a signature "Webster Joe".

Advertisement for Crossett "Doctor" Shoe. Includes an illustration of a shoe with numbered parts (1, 2, 3) and descriptive text: "You'll notice three added 'comfort-features' in the Crossett 'Doctor' Shoe, which give you greatest help in preventing and correcting fallen arches." Lists features: 1. The extended heel, 2. The curved 'waist', 3. The inside sole. Concludes with "Supports every bone in the foot" and "Lewis A. Crossett Inc., Makers 'Doctor' Shoe".